

A Cordial Welcome!

To the people visiting Marshall during the Street Fair, we extend acordial welcome to visit our store and inspect our mammoth stock. To show you that we intend to treat you fairly we will offer you

10 per cent off

on every article in our crockery department. It is a well known fact that we carry the largest assortment of this line of goods in the County. Our prices have always been a little under every body's else and then think of it, we offer you to per cent off on every article in our queens-ware stock. This applies to Fair week only.

so please don't ask for it before or after the fair as we shall certainly have to refuse you. Marshall's fair is to be the largest, cleanest and most fairly conducted in the State and we feel no hesitancy in recommending it to you. Come and bring all your family for it is free as the air you breathe, and when you want anything in our line call on us and our clerks will show you the best of treatment.

West Side Square.

W. E. PARRISH.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

New Goods of all kinds at the New York Store.

New Goods of all kinds at the New York Store.

Joe Wronker spent Monday at Slaters on business.

Exclusive Novelties in Waist Silks at the New York Store.

Wm. Irvine is sick with typhoid fever at his home on Eastwood.

Drs Bradshaw and Wagner, of Harde-man, were in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. W. S. Huston who has been quite sick for a week is not again.

Mrs. Thomas Boatright is reported quite sick at her home on Capitol Hill.

Miss Mattie Brown is boarding with Mrs. J. B. Hunter on South Jefferson Street.

Work began in our public schools on Tuesday and the book stores did a big business.

Robert Campbell, Jr., has been confined to the house for two weeks with malarial fever.

Walter Stallings and Clay Brown went over to Street Springs Monday to see the big elephant.

If you are looking for a home on your farm, see Van Dyke & Co., 1st door W. of Bank of Saline.

Mrs. James Duff Arins left Wednesday for Hamansville, after a pleasant visit to Marshall friends.

Hotel Vendome has changed hands. Mrs. Tipping and son will have charge of the hotel in the future.

Mrs. Dr. Howard of Slaters came in Wednesday morning to attend the Baptist Missionary meeting, she was the guest of Mrs. Joan Reynolds.

Mr. J. A. McIntosh is sick with fever at Hotel Hart.

Mrs. Wm. See is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. R. E. Sherman is visiting relatives at Highlee.

If you want a swell suit of clothes let the N. Y. Store fit you out.

Mrs. E. B. Hitt returned from a visit to Norborn, Gallatin and Kansas City.

Robert Conway of Kansas City spent Sunday in Marshall with his parents.

Did you see those swell Slumber Robes and Golf Shaws at the N. Y. S.

Will Striker returned Monday from Lexington, where he spent two days on business.

Rev. De A. W. Milster, of Higginville, was in the city Tuesday, the guest of Judge Davis.

Miss Wessie Frazer from Lexington, Ky., will arrive Saturday for a visit to Miss Berta Francisco.

Mrs. Thomas Boatright, who has been very ill for a week, is reported much better as we go to press.

Mrs. Carroll Logsdon returned Saturday from St. Joe and left Tuesday for Blackburn for a short visit.

L. P. Viley and family entertained their guests, Col. Denson and wife, at Blue Lick on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Schooling Chapline entertained a number of ladies on Tuesday evening at her home on Highland.

Mrs. W. T. Hope, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will arrive Wednesday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. A. Mackay.

Mrs. Mary Langan, of St. Louis, arrived Tuesday morning to assist in caring for her daughter Miss Agnes, who is very ill with typhoid fever.

Cards are out for party to be given by Miss Frances Wood on Friday evening complimentary to Misses Doris and Millie of Monroe, La.

Did you see those swell Slumber Robes and Golf Shaws at the N. Y. S.

Miss Lura Gilliam returned home Tuesday after a visit to friends in the city.

L. M. Haynie and wife, of Nelson, visited Arthur Hupp and family this week.

Exclusive Novelties in Waist Silks at the New York Store.

Miss Francisco, of Virginia, is visiting her uncle, G. M. Francisco and family.

Will Bea lost his handsome horse Star Bird, Tuesday night as a result of cholera.

Dr. G. S. Hardin has returned from Chicago, where he took a course of lectures.

Claud Colvert left Thursday for Booneville, where he will attend Kemper school.

George Irvin left Monday morning for Columbia, where he will attend the University this winter.

Misses Alice and Uelja King have returned from an extended visit to relatives at Savannah.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Sr., the head of the great railway system, died Tuesday, Sept. 12, of paralysis.

Insure your property against fire and tornado with Van Dyke & Co. Only the best fire, represented.

St. Joe Kansas City and return, Sunday, Sept. 17th via Mo. Pac. Special train leaves Marshall at 7:30 a.m.

Miss Sallie King, daughter of Will B. King, left this week for Fulton, where she will attend school this winter.

R. E. J. Smith left Monday morning to attend the County Clerks Convention that meets at St. Joe this week.

J. I. Simpson, of Mexico, formerly connected with the Electric Light Plant of this city was a visitor in the city Monday.

Miss Angie Thompson returned Saturday morning from a brief trip to St. Louis in the interest of her establishment.

Miss Pat Parrish returned Saturday from Lexington, where she attended a reception given by Miss Nancy Huston last week.

Prof. Allen, representing Brees Military Academy of Mason City, visited Marshall this week in the interest of the School.

The Mo. Pac. will run a special train to Kansas City Sunday, Sept. 17th, leaving Marshall at 7:30 a.m. $1.00 for the round trip.

Miss Adelle Hathmacher of St. Louis has arrived. She will have charge of the training room at Miss Angie Thompson's.

We invite our friends to make our office their headquarters during the Street Fair. Van Dyke & Co., 1st door W. of Bank of Saline.

Thomas Barber, of Excelsior Springs, arrived Tuesday for a visit to relatives. He is enroute to Chicago, where he will attend the McCormick Theological Seminary. Mr. Barber was present at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

An Elegant Line of Fall and Winter Suit Goods, in the Choicest and Latest Styles, just received. Call and see my stock of Neat and Nobby Selections, while you have all the patterns to choose from, now complete in every respect. Also, some handsome goods for Light and Heavy Overcoats.

Here you are sure of a good fitting and stylishly cut garment. Every Stitch is taken in the house, a strictly tailoring establishment.

Joe Mitchell, The Tailor.

West Side Square.